

Acquisition Strategy

... is a compilation of the formal plans that address the tools, resources and management concepts for directing and controlling a project to completion and ensure that the system being acquired satisfies the approved mission need -- accomplished on schedule, with minimal cost and of adequate quality.