

EM-6 Mission

The Office of Project Management serves as the focal point for project management and independent project reviews within EM. As such, EM-6, working through the DASs, develops and integrates project management knowledge and skills into the Department's environmental program management structure. EM-6 works in liaison with the Office of Engineering and Construction Management and other Program Secretarial Offices in establishing EM project management policy, guidance, controls, project reviews and training.